MEMBERSHIP DEFINITIONS

REGISTERED HOME INSPECTORS

Registered Home Inspectors have demonstrated their proficiency by performing no fewer than 250 fee-paid inspections in accordance with the CAHPI Standards of Practice; they have also passed a series of written examinations testing their knowledge of residential construction, inspection techniques, report writing, and the Standards of Practice and Code of Ethics. Registered Members carry CAHPI's mandatory Comprehensive Liability Insurance. Retaining membership requires each Member to earn 40 continuing education credits every two years. Registered Members of CAHPI (BC) are registered under the Society Act with the Occupational Title designation "Registered Home Inspector" and the initials "RHI."

ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

Associate Members are working toward completion of 250 fee-paid inspections. They have passed all written examinations necessary for membership and are required to complete inspections to the CAHPI Standards of Practice and Code of Ethics. Associate Members carry CAHPI's mandatory Comprehensive Liability Insurance. Retaining membership requires each Member to earn 40 continuing education credits every two years. They are allowed to use the CAHPI(BC) logo with an indication of Associate Membership.

Note:

Candidates for Membership have not completed all membership requirements. Their names are not published and they are not permitted to promote their affiliation with CAHPI(BC) until they have proven qualifications.
